Omega Diagnostics Group PLC ("Omega" or the "Company")

Directorate Change

Omega, the AIM listed medical diagnostics company, announces that Geoff Gower intends to step down from the Board with effect from 31 May 2012.

Geoff Gower is currently Managing Director of Genesis Diagnostics Ltd and Cambridge Nutritional Sciences Ltd, and has overseen a period of growth in the Food Intolerance business. Recent additions to senior sales and marketing personnel have taken place to capitalise on further growth opportunities with this division and the ability to manage the site locally from existing resources means the Company does not intend to recruit a direct replacement for Geoff's position. Geoff will work with colleagues to ensure a smooth transition in the months ahead.
